Dear Mr Wiseman,

I was puzzled by your recent letter complaining about a letter to TIME from a certain Mr John Donovan. We have done an extensive search of all our letters columns in all our editions for the last few years and can find no trace of such a letter. I can only conclude that your attention was drawn to this alleged letter by someone who had not done their homework and that you yourself had not checked the facts before writing to me. If I'm wrong please let me know. If I'm right then I think you owe me an apology.

Yours faithfully, Sincerely.

Chris Redman
