Re: Kiobel v. Cravath, Swaine & Moore LLP, No. 17-424-cv

Dear Ms. O'Hagan:

I write to alert the Court to a clerical error in the Court's opinion issued today in the above-captioned matter. On page 15 of the slip opinion, the opinion states, "As amicus the New York City Bar Association notes, its Ethics Opinion 780 states that law firms have an interest in retaining documents where needed to protect themselves from accusations of wrongful conduct." Ethics Opinion 780 that our amicus brief cited to the Court was issued by the New York State Bar Association, not the New York City Bar Association. So this sentence could be corrected read, "As amicus the New York City Bar Association notes, New York State Bar Ethics Opinion 780 states that law firms have an interest in retaining documents where needed to protect themselves from accusations of wrongful conduct."

Respectfully submitted,

Joseph E. Neuhaus
